UP AND (III: I)
Make a play for your own action hero franchise with an aerodynamic ponytail that seems caught in motion. Hairstylist Tamara McNaughton constructed an internal framework of hair extensions, which were bobby-pinned to the head (you can also use a bun hairpiece). Then she swept the hair into a high ponytail, concealing all that scaffolding and leaving nothing visible. As a final touch, she sprayed hair spray at the roots—sent the can toward the ceiling to turn up the volume even more (try Tresemmé Compressed Micro Mist Hair Spray).
